

I fully support xm radio and enjoy all of its present programming. I would like to add that any interference from the fcc to try and inhibit or force some kind of change I would consider a personal affront to my freedom of choice the goverment should concentrate on more important matters and stop trying to infringe on the rights of american citizens!